Dear President [REDACTED]

In a recent review of fast-offering expenditures, the following was identified in the Farmington 4th Ward, which we bring to your attention.

Enclosed please find a copy of a check prepared by the Farmington 4th Ward, which was written to "Discover" for [REDACTED]. This appears to be the payment of consumer debt which Church leaders are instructed not to pay with fast offerings (Handbook 1, 5.2.4, Fast Offerings 5). We also understand that these expenditures may be an appropriate use of fast offering funds.

Please review this matter with the bishop to ensure that correct welfare principles and procedures are being followed, and that any necessary training and corrective action is undertaken.

After your review, please contact [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] or by e-mail at [REDACTED]@ldschurch.org so that we can inform the Area Audit Committee of the action you have taken. We will appreciate your response by April 15, 2014.

Thank you for your help in this matter. May the Lord continue to bless you in your efforts to care for the poor and needy.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

cc: [REDACTED], Director for Temporal Affairs
[REDACTED], Area Welfare Manager
